changing of the light

norbert wissing 2005

gesproken

The sky is broken in grey and silver
The wind blows clean
I watch the shadows chase across the hillside
And out to sea
You and I, we're nearly full circle
It's just a touch away
And all the seeds we've sown in a lifetime
They'll come good some day
Pain is what you live with
And try to change the subject
In the dark the hands reach out
But I still feel the wonder
As the sky turns to fire
A catching in the heart
Standing between the worlds
In the changing of the light
Across the desert the wise men travelled
Following a dream
I see the same star shining above us
Endlessly
